

Headteacher Message

"Success is the sum of all efforts, repeated day in and day out."

Year 6 have successfully completed their SATs this week and we are all very proud of them. Next week, Year 2 will complete their SATs in their classroom. This week, the children have been working very hard in preparation for these. Elsewhere in school, learning has thrived with information about animals, to locational knowledge and data handling. Our whole school recognition board has been bursting full of names over the last couple of weeks and long may this continue for the rest of the summer term. Have a lovely weekend.

Asthma UK We raised a huge £260.00! Enormous thanks to everybody.

Other Messages

School crossing unfortunately, there will not be a School Crossing Patrol until further notice at the zebra crossing. Please remain extra vigilant when crossing. If you or someone you know would like to apply for the school crossing patrol position, please see the LCC website.

Father's Day lunch A letter inviting guests to the Father's day lunch has been sent. In order to book a place please make a payment for an adult lunch on school spider. There is no form to complete.

Eco-Council/PTFA We still require old photo frames (preferably those with a flat border), metal tins and bike tyres for the summer project.

R Assembly Please complete the form on school spider to confirm attendance for Friday 20th May.

No Nuts A reminder that lunches and snack must not contain nuts. Please also read the nivia sun cream message sent earlier this week.

Big Plastic Count Next week is the Big Plastic Count. Please support your child in completing the tally chart that was sent home recently. A link will be sent home next week for you to input your data. Tally charts are not to be returned to school.

Lunch Price There will be an increase in school lunches in the new academic year. The cost of a school lunch will be £2.40.

Should you always be allowed to choose your own breakfast?

In the news this week

Cereal company, Kellogg's, is taking the UK government to court over new rules that would stop some of its cereals being put at the forefront of supermarket shelves, as they have high amounts of sugar. It is challenging rules that are set to come into effect in England in October and would restrict the promotion of food and drink that is high in fat, salt and sugar. Kellogg's has said the new rules don't take into account the nutritional value of milk, which is usually added to the product. The government's new rules, which follow other restrictions previously put in place, aim to encourage people to make healthier food choices.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > Share some of the things you eat for breakfast. Do you often have cereal? Do you have it with milk? How about others in your home?
- > Do you always choose your own breakfast? Share some of your favourite choices and why you choose the things you do.
